CORRESPONDENCE

ENTERPRISE

Enterprise, Utah, July 6, 1920.
Be sure to remember the big time in Enterprise on the 24th and 25th.

Mrs. Minnie Edwards of Panama is visiting relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Hunt went to Salt Lake City Friday on a pleasure trip.

The children of Mr. Jeff Hunt were called to Santa Clara to the funeral of Mr. Hunt's wife last week.

A crowd of young folks from Newcastle and Modena came here to spend the Fourth with us.

Mr. and Mrs. John Day came to spend the Fourth with relatives and friends.

Miss Kate Hamblin and her father of St. George are here visiting for a while.

SUMMIT

Summit, Utah, July 7, 1920.
Mrs. Lettie B. Dalley and daughter, Mrs. Ann Pratt, will leave tomorrow for an extended trip to Idaho, visiting relatives in several towns and cities.

The Fourth passed very quietly here, many of our young people attending the celebrations at Parowan and Cedar City. Quite a number of our towns people, however, took their picnic and spent a pleasant day in the canyon.

Leo Farnsworth, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones and daughter Berta, motored to Salt Lake last week and spent the Fourth with relatives in the metropolis. They report having had a most enjoyable trip.

This afternoon the Relief Society members gave Aunt Lettie Dalley a most pleasant surprise in honor of her 85th birthday. The crowd met on the lawn where they were entertained with some beautiful music from the Edison phonograph. Dainty refreshments, consisting of chicken sandwiches, ice cream and cake, were served, and a good time enjoyed by all.

NADA

Nada, Utah, July 6, 1920.
D. L. Kesler and sisters Bertha and Irene went to Minersville to celebrate Independence Day.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Smith and babe motored over from Cedar last Sunday to look over their property here.

S. S. Owens has filed on a homestead near Blue Knoll. We will be glad to welcome them among us once more.

Gerald Lash, who has been employed near Cedar City, came over to spend the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy McGinty of Minersville and Mr. and Mrs. R. R. McGinty took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Wix on the fifth.

Mrs. J. E. Rambler went to Lund Sunday morning to spend a few days with Mr. Rambler, who is employed as section foreman at that place.

Philip Costello of Los Angeles arrived here Thursday to visit his aunt Mrs. Lena Linderman. He accompanied Messrs Linderman and Lewis to Cedar City last Monday.

Weather report for June: Total precipitation .39 inch; greatest in 24 hours .26; date 28. No. of days with .01 or more precipitation 3. Clear days 25; partly cloudy 5. L. A. Culmsee, crop observer.

Glenn Barnes, Miss Florence Kemp and Joe Wyers came down from Milford to attend the dance at McGinty's. The following from Cedar City were in attendance: Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Colvin and son Philip, Mrs. D. J. Hedges, Mr. and Mrs. S. Owens, and H. Linderman.

In the corn belt corn that is "knee high, 4th of July" is considered safe. Several of our residents report corn knee high and over, on dry land; also squash, musk-melon and water melon vines in bloom. All who have put in garden to any extent have for some time past been enjoying radishes, lettuce, onions, turnips, beets and peas.

About 20 of our people spent the Fourth at Paramour Springs, where Lund celebrated the day. A glorious day, indeed, was enjoyed. The Lundites proved genial hosts—plenty of barbecued meat, ice cream, lemonade and all sorts of good things. About five o'clock a ball game was scheduled to take place at Lund between Nada and the home team, which was not finished and somewhat marred the otherwise perfect day.

The Nadaites began the Fourth of July festivities early this year, with a social dance on the night of the 3rd at the McGinty home in East Nada. About 60 guests were present. The evening was spent in dancing and social intercourse. As usual, a mid-night lunch was served which was in honor of the day. It was a little unusual and might be termed a sumptuous repast. It consisted of sandwiches, cake and ice-cream galore, coffee and chocolate, until the biggest cake eaters called "Enough!"

First Picture of Democrats Nominating Their Candidates

This first picture of the Democratic convention at San Francisco shows the vast concourse of 10,000 delegates and spectators in the new million-dollar Auditorium. Senator Robinson of Arkansas, permanent chairman, can be seen on the platform, immediately under the giant electric amplifier, which carries the speaker's voice to every corner of the big hall. In the foreground are members of the press, newspapermen from all over the world. The various state delegations are on the ground floor under state banners.

dental treatment at Government expense whose teeth decayed while he was in service, or thru loss of same. Several of the men have already taken advantage of this opportunity and it is urged that others who are in need of treatment see Dr. Petty at once, since the longer you wait the more difficult it is to prove it was caused while you were in service.
